>Dear Dr. Angelos:
>As per your request:
> > We previously submitted a DNA sequence to Genbank with the > >following bankit and accession numbers:BankIt303440;AF205359. Our > >original release date was Nov. 30,2000; we would like to request that > >this date be changed to March 31, 2001 or publication date, whichever > >is sooner.
>We have changed the release date for your GenBank submission AF205359 to:
>
> November 30, 2001.
>We have a policy to extend the release date to a minimum of one year >from today. Your entry will be released on this date or when the GenBank >Accession Number or sequence data is published, whichever is first. If >you wish to change this release date, please let us know as soon as possible.
>If you have additional information about your sequence or if you wish >to make further revisions, please inform us. Again, revisions to your >data may pertain to the bibliography, to the biological data (e.g., new >features), or to the sequence data. Please send additional revisions to:
